Pollrich DLK Fan Factories opens sales company in the Netherlands

Since September, 1st 2011 the group Pollrich DLK Fan Factories has established a new sales company to increase their international activities. The new sales company Pollrich DLK Carpark & Tunnel International B.V. located in Amersfoort (NL) focuses on projects for tunnels and car parks. The experienced sales team with a long track record in car park- and tunnel projects offers well-proven and ideal solutions from one source. The comprehensive range of products with tunnel- and jetfans, as well as system components as sensors and CO-warning devices guarantees optimal and reliable operation of the complete system. The business activities cover all project phases – from conceptual design with optional CFD-analysis to installation and acceptance test of the complete system.
